

hurt. He knocked a single and triple, as did Viox of the Pirates. Doc Miller was replaced in the field by Paskert, but cracked a double when acting as pinch hitter for Pitcher Marshall. In the full game he played Thursday Miller went hitless. The last seven times he has been summoned as pinch hitter he has delivered. Some dope. Claude Hendrix pitched strong ball for Pittsburgh.

Rube Benton was wild, but held Brooklyn to eight hits, being scored on in one inning. Yingling and Stack were pestled by the Reds, who cleaned up their fourth straight. Josh Devore jimmied four singles. Smith of Brooklyn rounded out a pair of doubles.

Huggins' Cardinals finally won a game from Boston, getting to Lefty Tyler in the sixth inning for enough to cop. Burk and Sallee pitched for St. Louis, Slim stopping the Braves in the last three innings. Connelly of the Braves whaled a homer and single. Rebel Oakes connected for a double and single.

"And the cat came back."

So did "Three Fingered Brown," who was for several years the pitching mainstay of the Chicago National League Club under Frank Chance.

So did Johnny Kling, who during

Photos by Durborough.

Mordecai Brown and John Kling.